Midway News

by Fawn Kohler — 654-1028

Alma and Olga Nicol enjoyed having all of their family, Sandra and Roger Carter and their four sons, from Salt Lake City; Lynda and Alan Bott and their infant son, Kip, from Comino, California; Tanya and Terry (George) Mecham; and Diana and Raymond Chase from Salt Lake City, during the week. They all enjoyed being together.

Friday night the moon played peek-a-boo with the heavy cloud cover for hiding. As fast moving clouds passed the moon, their edges and open spaces between, they lit up like fire, revealing fantastic formations that would excite the most inept artist. An enormous purple black butterfly with brightly laced wings, and there's a giant Bald Eagle. It's head being of clouds of less density, took on a white transparency Saturday and by Sunday nights the full face of the moon smiling dimmed the brightness of the stars in the cloudless sky.

Saturday evening 20 young men and women from the Olympus High School ensemble gave a most interesting acapella program at the Midway City they spent time in sightseeing. Ice cream and brownies at the Robert Sweeten home, supper and a life planning discussion around a camp fire. Most have received scholarships to various colleges and universities.

One girl, Heidi, is a niece of Allen Toronto. Another girl found that her grandmother had Kohler cousins and an aunt of Toma Waldbeiser; a boy, Robert L. Seeeten, is a grandson of Robert and Phyllis Sweeten.

Some of them stayed and attended church at the Midway Second Ward.

Vince Willella, who is the brother of Jean Hoover, and his wife Sue and their five children have found rent in Valley Hills in Heber. They are hoping to build a home in Midway.

Sandra Johnson was the youth speaker, Nathan, Dale, Ellie and Valoy Eaton were the speakers at the Midway First Ward. Jessica Remund and Marilyn Larson.

Kim and Jean have a baby boy which was born Wednesday morning, July 8, 1987. He weighed in at seven pounds five ounces and measured 20 inches.
